To Our Valued Customers,

The COVID-19 pandemic is an unprecedented situation that is affecting all of our families, our businesses and our daily lives. We are taking steps to ensure the continued safety and well-being of our employees and customers. We are closely monitoring for updates from the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) as our safety guidelines will adapt with any developments.

Basic Ready Mix and Basic Materials WILL continue to operate as normal for the foreseeable future. We are operating as part of the Essential Critical Infrastructure Workforce outlined by Homeland Security as part of the supply chain supporting critical businesses during this health emergency.

As we work through this time of uncertainty together, we remain committed to providing reliable service and the best quality products, while continuing focus on health and safety.

We appreciate your support and business.

Sincerely,
